

DRAPER PERFORMING COMPANY OVERVIEWS 2017-18

MDT (Music Dance Theatre) companies are designed for students who want to pursue musical theatre either in school, community, and regional theatre productions, a career on Broadway, or attend a musical theatre collegiate program. Companies are designed to give students purposeful performance opportunities, build their resumes, network with professionals in the industry, and give the best training possible.

COPA's CM (Contemporary Music) program is new to Draper this year! The goal of the CM companies is train students for careers in the music industry as recording artists, members of touring performing companies, and/or perform in local and major TV and film productions. COPA students have performed on American Idol, The Voice, on stage with David Archuleta and Kevin Olusola, and opened for Rachel Platten, American Authors and Jason Derulo.

COPA companies have performed in the Movie 12 Dogs of Christmas II directed by Oscar winner Kieth Merrill, for the Governor, Hollywood producers, Young Ambassador Director Randy Boothe, Broadway directors Susan Stroman and Jeff Whiting as well as casting director Jeff Johnson. They have performed in NYC's Lincoln Center, Kingsbury Hall, Capitol Theater and The Covey Center for the Arts. They have also performed with David Archuleta, Kevin Olusola with Pentatonix and Broadway composer Jason Robert Brown and Broadway stars Jeremy Jordan, Laura Benanti, Ramin Karimloo, Dallyn Vail Bayles, Ben Platt, Jenny Jordan and more. In addition, they have performed at Tuacahn, NYC and LA where they workshop with Broadway and Contemporary artists and producers, see Broadway shows, and engage in Q&A's with cast members, enjoy backstage tours, and perform.

CM companies are under the artistic direction of Carmen Rasmussen Herbert (American Idol). MDT companies are artistically directed by Mindy Smoot Robbins (Broadway tour Les Mis), Suzie Balser (Mamma Mia Vegas) and Nathan Balser (Broadway credits: Legally Blonde, 9 to 5, Promises, Promises). The Draper MDT and CM program are led by Megan McClannan Reardon (Disney's Belle, Beauty and the Beast).
